Rethinking Dyslexia

DECODING DYSLEXIA

Changing Policies, Changing Strategies, Changing Lives!

Join Us for An Informative and Inspiring Evening on Dyslexia

Thursday, May 2, 2013
Rider University Yvonne Theater

Dyslexia is the most common, yet most misunderstood learning disability. Dyslexics are not stupid and they do not read backwards. So what exactly is Dyslexia? What instructional strategies and technologies work? How can parents, teachers, administrators, and policy-makers help? These issues will be addressed and more.

4:00 pm REGISTRATION
4:30 pm Welcoming Remarks and Special Guests

5:00 pm
Keynote Speakers

Drs. Sally & Bennett Shaywitz
Co-Founders, Yale Center for Dyslexia & Creativity

6:15 pm
Movie Screening

The Big Picture:
Rethinking Dyslexia

7:15 pm
Panel Discussion | Q&A

Students, Parents, Teachers and Professionals discuss the CHANGES needed to effectively address dyslexia today.

Register Online at www.DecodingDyslexiaNJ.org

Light Refreshments Will Be Served | Continuing Education Units Will Be Awarded

Sponsored by Decoding Dyslexia - NJ and Rider University's Counseling Center, Disabilities Services and Council for Exceptional Children Chapter

1865 RIDER UNIVERSITY