Verona students, faculty and, staff are cordially invited to attend the 17th annual Petersheim Exposition for Academic Excellence held at Seton Hall University, from Monday April 22-Saturday April 27, 2013. This year's theme is Share, Honor and Unite.

Please check the link for the program schedule http://www.shu.edu/academics/artsci/petersheim/ .

There are many events that would be of interest to your students. There are poster sessions, symposiums, concerts, workshops, language presentations and much more. Yours students might be especially interested in the Food and Fitness poster session, the Interdisciplinary poster session and the Chinese speeches competition on Monday April 22.

Other events of interest include the Nursing, Health and Medical Sciences Poster session and Student film festival, both on Tuesday April 23. The Special Skaters Ice Show will be at the Codey Arena in West Orange on Saturday April 27 from 6-8 p.m.

Please note that some presentations have limited seating so please contact Martha Schoene schoenma@shu.edu and Dr. Chang sulie.chang@shu.edu to RSVP. We are looking forward to sharing these presentations with you and your students.
