This past Tuesday, March 25th Verona High School hosted the North Jersey Region I State Concert Band Festival.

Performing last, the Verona Concert Band received a Gold Rating, the award for Best Brass, Best Percussion, and score of 96.5! The band performed Electric Shock March by Puccini and the first Movement of Ghost Train by Eric Whitacre. GGhost Train is classified as Grade "6" – the most difficult classification in the concert band literature.

A link to the performance can be found at www.veronamusic.org!