H.B.W. EIGHTH GRADER, LUCAS-KONRAD PARISI, TO REPRESENT NEW JERSEY IN THE NATIONAL HISTORY DAY CONTEST FINALS

On Saturday, May 3rd, seventeen H.B.W. students participated in the New Jersey History Day Competition at William Paterson University.

Congratulations go to:

Lucas Konrad-Parisi who was recognized for his research paper titled, "J. Robert Oppenheimer: Individual Rights v. National Security." He will travel to the University of Maryland in June for the National History Day Finals!

Lucas Konrad-Parisi is pictured here with Mrs. Barbara Kistner, H.B.W. Social Studies teacher and National History Day advisor.

More congratulations go to the following H.B.W. students: Alexandra Deutsch, Christine Feeley, Isabella Josephson, Caitlin Klose, and Kitty Pagano who were chosen as alternates for their website: "Opposing McCarthy: Protecting Citizens Rights".