Verona High School Instant Decision Day
December 10, 2013

The Verona High School Counseling Department is hosting an Instant Decision Day on December 10, 2013. Representatives from a variety of colleges and universities will meet individually with students. More information and a list of attending institutions will be forthcoming.

What will happen on Instant Decision Day?
You will be given an appointment to meet with a college representative right here at Verona High School. Representatives will hold a personal interview and review your application. You will then receive an instant admissions decision.

If I am accepted, am I required to attend?
No. These are non-binding decisions. It is to your benefit to take advantage of this opportunity.

May I have more than one interview?
Yes! You are not restricted to the number of colleges on Instant Decision Day. If you meet the schools' requirements, then you may apply.

Must I meet certain requirements to be eligible to apply for Instant Decision?
Yes! Each college has its own requirements for the Instant Decision Day. Minimum GPA, SAT score range, and other requirements are listed on the Instant Decision Day Registration Form. If you do not meet the requirements, you are not permitted to participate in Instant Decision Day for that particular school, but you can still apply through the regular admissions process.

Do I need to have a teacher's letter of recommendation?
Yes! Make sure that you have at least 1 teacher letter uploaded to Naviance by December 2.
