

Attention Parents of Juniors:

The New Jersey Scholars Program is an intensive five-week academic program for present 11th graders who are outgoing and highly motivated students. This summer, the residential program takes place on the Lawrenceville School campus and is funded by private contributions. There is no fee to the student. The dates of the program are Sunday, June 26 through Friday July 29, 2016; the topic for study will be The Great War Era: Cultural Splendor of the Collapse of Civilization. Information may be found on their website at www.newjerseyscholarsprogram.org. If your child wishes to be considered for this prestigious program, have them see Mrs. Newman by Friday, December 4, 2015.
