“LOOT hits the jackpot.” –
 Rick Riordan, bestselling author of
Percy Jackson and the Olympians

On a foggy night in Amsterdam, a man falls from a rooftop to the wet pavement below. It's Alfie McQuinn, the notorious cat burglar. As sirens wail in the distance, Alfie manages to get out two last words to his young son, March: "Find jewels."

But March learns that his father is not talking about a stash of loot. He's talking about Jules, the twin sister March never knew he had. No sooner than the two find each other, they're picked up by the police and sent to the world's worst orphanage. But Jules and March know their father's business inside and out... Just one good heist, and they'll live the life of riches and freedom most kids only dream about!
