

This Spring, Make Your Weekends Count!

NYU High School Academy Weekend Workshops

As the college admissions process becomes more competitive than ever before, it's critical for high school students to prepare in new and innovative ways. The NYU School of Professional Studies High School Academy is now offering weekend workshops. These workshops provide high school students with the leading edge they need for college admissions by enhancing their college portfolio and by improving critical skill sets—all while exploring a wide range of professional options.

Workshops are offered in condensed, weekend formats and are taught by top industry experts. They provide a rigorous course of study and a great addition to a college application.

Workshops begin in February. Registration deadline Friday, February 13, 2015. Seats are limited. Enroll today!
