WHAT WE DO AND WHY WE'RE DIFFERENT

Own The Room is not your usual public speaking training or presentation training course. Our communication skills training workshop experiences take your presentation, public speaking and executive presence to a whole new level.

The learning approach is non-traditional, highly interactive and, yes, fun.

You'll learn impactful skills you can apply instantly. It's definitely not a lecture!
Our coaches are world-class professionals and you'll see results in minutes, not months.

WHY IS IT FREE?

Own The Room is a global powerhouse with local roots in Montclair, NJ. We're passionate about making a difference in the world. We train Fortune 100 companies, industry leaders, and celebrities.

Normally these sessions would cost hundreds of dollars, but we are proud to offer training at no cost during our annual Own The Room - GIVES BACK event. We also use these sessions as annual certification for our highly experienced coaches.

We know how hard you work - in school, at home, at work, and in our community. We understand you may not have the budget to invest in growing your own skills. So this is our way of helping.
