Luca Maglificio of Verona, New Jersey is a 3-month old who has recently been diagnosed with a rare cancer in his eye. In order to get the specialized care he needs, the family travels to the Philadelphia, PA Children's Hospital. This not only takes an emotional toll on the family of 4 young children, but has also created financial strain. Many of Luca's treatments require overnight stays incurring costly travel expenses and hotel costs. Any contribution would help to elevate this difficult time and would be immensely appreciated.
