

“You don’t understand me!”
“I don’t know why I tell you anything!”

They used to hug you and tell you everything. Now there are attitude, eye-rolling, and one-word answers. What happened to the sweet child you used to know?

Your relationship with your teen can be easier.
What if you had tools that really work?

FROM EYE-ROLLING TO I LOVE YOU: Transforming the Parent-Teen Relationship is a class for parents of teens and tweens. At this workshop you will:

- learn the real reason you and your child end up fighting instead of talking.
- know the exact words that will gain your child’s trust and keep them talking.
- experience how acknowledging feelings can make your child actually want to be with you and seek your guidance.
- take these skills home and use them immediately in your family.

FROM EYE-ROLLING TO I LOVE YOU:
Transforming the Parent-Teen Relationship

Date: Monday, May 1st
