

WHO GETS IN AND WHY: A BEHIND-THE-SCENES LOOK AT THE SELECTIVE ADMISSIONS PROCESS

Jennifer Simons, Associate Director of Undergraduate Admissions, Jaime Morgen and Cyrus Washington, Admissions Counselors at Tufts, will offer an interactive admissions workshop for high school students and their parents.

The program will highlight the various elements of a successful college application. Topics include:

- How do colleges evaluate a high school transcript?
- Tips on successful essay writing & the impact of an application supplement
- The role of recommendations and interviews in a highly-selective admission process
- How to highlight “intangible” factors
